Undergraduate and Graduate Scholarships

The Taos Archaeological Society has the option of offering scholarships to outstanding undergraduate & graduate students pursuing degrees in Archaeology at a New Mexico college.

First priority for awarding TAS scholarships will be given to local Taos area high graduates with plans to pursue a degree in Archaeology, or a closely related field. If no Taos area High School students meet that criteria, this award is open to undergraduate and graduates of Archaeology attending an accredited 2- or 4-year New Mexico college, or Taos area students attending an accredited college out of state but focusing on New Mexico studies.

A TAS Scholarships for $500 can be awarded annually and is based on assessment of the following criteria:

- Grade point average and academic achievement,
- Volunteer and work experience,
- Applicant must have a career direction related to Archaeology,
- Applicant must have a cumulative undergraduate GPA of 2.75 (on a 4.0 scale) or higher,
- Commitment to the Archaeology profession,
- Clarity of application.

A complete Application Packet must include the following:

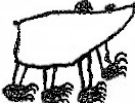

1. A brief essay on your career goals in relation to the field of Archaeology. (Format: Maximum length of 2 pages, typed, double spaced, font size 12 point)
2. A completed, legible scholarship application form – “TAS Undergraduate and Graduate Scholarship Application Form”
3. Two letters of reference from current or past professors.

Scholarship awards must be used for tuition, fees, books, and lodging expenses, and are given directly to the student. Application packets should be submitted to the:
